We are no longer accepting used Sunday School literature and other books at the association office. Book-Link now requires 40 cents per pound and it is cost prohibitive for us to continue this project.

Disaster Response & Reconstruction Update

In mid to late October, Stuart Lang (state missionary in Community Missions and Disaster Response) encouraged us to take church teams into the disaster area of South Georgia. Twenty-two associations responded saying they already had teams on the ground or were organizing teams to deploy. Some shipped needed supplies to the affected areas while others sent gift cards for home repair and groceries.

By November, credentialed Baptist Disaster Relief teams had pulled out leaving local churches to work with Baptist Associations to coordinate Disaster Response and Reconstruction activities. This means that local churches now hold many work order requests from the community. They are hoping Georgia churches will continue to come to the aid of South Georgia and continue to address community needs.

Currently we have a team made of members from Sinclair and Jackson Baptist who went to the Bainbridge area on the last weekend in November and the first weekend in December. Sandersville took a group the last week in November to the Blakely area.

If you have a team willing to go, there is still much work to be done.

The following are contact phone numbers that Stuart Lang and I have located to help teams locate adequate housing and showers. For the Albany area, contact Gillionville Baptist (229) 435-9738 and ask for Roy Cook; Byne Baptist (229)436-5700 and ask for Hal Pinson. Or you can call Hans Wunch at (864)-980-1198. For the Bainbridge area, contact Ken Cloud (229)221-7837. For the Blakely area: Contact James Holloway (229)835-2887.

Note from Mary Patterson,
Appalachian Relief Fund:

“Thanks to all of you for the backpacks. A lot of kids are going to be happy this Christmas. I have been chosen to be on the Hallmark Channel along with Amy Grant (“Amy Grant’s Tennessee Christmas”) for my mission work. It is such an honor.”

Love in Christ,
