Missionary Moment Quillian Mercer, AMS

There is already a LOT of excitement around our December 8-11 Mission Trip to Kentucky. As of the day I am writing this, we already have 14 who have expressed interest! I have had several questions about the trip, so I wanted to take this opportunity to answer a few of those questions and give the details as we have them. We will have an informational meeting about the Mission Trip on October 11, immediately following our Annual Meeting. This will be a brief meeting to set a time and place for a more in depth meeting.

Here is the basic schedule:

- Thursday, December 8th—Travel day—How we travel will be based on the number of people. If you should choose to travel on your own, we will coordinate arrival and hotel check-in.
- Friday, December 9th—Set-up and prep for distribution
- Saturday, December 10th—Distribution of backpacks—I hope to have more details about the how and where when we meet in October.
- Sunday, December 11th—Travel Day—There will be an option to worship with Crossroads Community Baptist Church or just make our way back that morning. We can discuss this at the meeting.

Questions I've been asked:

1. Where will we stay? There are basically two options: A local hotel or a local Missions and Ministry center. The hotel is not fancy but it is safe and has all the things you'd expect. The Mission center is more bare bones and has bunkbeds and community bathrooms.
2. How much will it cost? My goal is to keep the upfront cost down. Until we know where we are staying I cannot be certain, but the plan is to keep the cost under $150/person.
3. Who can go? Anyone that is willing to serve. I have had 5 year olds and 80 year olds. Just be willing to serve and I can put you to work.

My prayer is that this will become a long-term partnership with Grant and Gina Hasty and their work in Kentucky. Pastors, I would love for you to join me and come see all the possibilities for future ministry there, including the Lord's Cafe and The Light Community. I know this will be a great trip for all who can attend. Come be a part of our first trip together! Lord willing, it will be the first of many that the WBA does in our quest to be #OnMissionTogether.

Community Service Request

Hello! My name is Lea Ann Manley. I work at the Fellowship Home at Meriwether in Milledgeville and looking for gospel entertainment for our residents on Sunday afternoons between 2-3pm before their church service. If any of the church's choirs, choir members, including children's groups, musicians, singer/entertainers, etc., in the Washington Baptist Association, would be interested in volunteering approximately an hour of their time on Sunday afternoons at our facility to lift the spirits of the residents and bring smiles to their faces, it would be such a great pleasure to welcome them and enjoy their God given talents. For any and all interested, please contact me at The Fellowship Home, 248-295-1005. Thank you so very much, Lea Ann Manley Early voting will begin on Monday, October 17. We feel the need for each of individual member churches within the Washington Baptist Association to host its own 24 hour prayer vigil during the 24 hour period from noon on Sunday, October 16 until noon Monday, October 17th. This corporate call to prayer will allow our hearts as members of Washington Baptist Association to align with our Father's heart on critical issues affecting our state.

Woman's Missionary Union Harriett Amerson, Director

We had boys, girls, women, and men marching all over the social hall of Westview Baptist Church last Saturday. They were packing 404 lunch bags filled with candy bars, little Debbie cakes, chips, crackers, popcorn, jerky, and other items. They were delivered to first responders in the Sandersville, Tennille, Milledgeville, and Sparta areas. We couldn't get to everybody, but maybe next year. There are so many people to thank. There is no way to name names or groups so if you will do this for me. Put your name or your church name in the blank thank you note.

You are gracious, loving, and caring Christians. God is so pleased with your efforts to be in His service. We pray God will richly bless you.

Thank you _____ so much.

Happy shopping for your backpacks and your shoeboxes.
